Afghan Wars : Battles In A Hostile Land
Edgar O, Ballance Code : 9781857533088
Pub Price : 12.99 UK.P
This is a brief account of the five wars Afghanistan has experienced since 1839, which span the turbulent century and a half of its modern history, prior to which it was more a geographical region than a nation state. This period covers the so-called 19th Century Great Game between the British in India and Czarist Russia for colonial expansion into Afeganistan and Turkistan. The first two Anglo-Afegan

Afghan Wars And The North West Frontier 1839 to 1947
Michael Barthorp Code : 9780304362943
Pub Price : 14.99 UK.P British forces in India were in almost constant battle with Afghan hill tribes, the most implacable guerrilla fighters in history. Frontier warfare, warfare, was one of the most important tasks for the British army in India. It was a strange war fought to its own rules. Either side seldom took prisoners. Over the years, the British introduced armoured vehicles and aircraft, but the key features of warfare on the Afegan frontier remained the same
